

Capitalist Crossword #2

Across

1 - Which social/political/economic system always gets the blame even when - or especially when - its opposite is the real cause of strife?

4 - John Howard said: "In Australia's case, that dominant [cultural] pattern comprises Judeo-Christian ethics, [and] the progressive spirit of the [what?]."

6 - John Locke: I have always thought the actions of men the best interpreters of their [what?].

8 - Thomas Paine: Moderation in temper is always a virtue; but moderation in [what?] is always a vice.

9 - Edmund Burke: A State without the means of some change is without the means of its [what?]

10 - After 9/11, Nobel Laureate, Paul Krugman wrote: "Ghastly as it may seem to say this, the terror attack ... could even do some economic good ... Now, all of a sudden, we need some new office buildings ... rebuilding will generate at least some increase in business spending." Can you name the fallacy behind this view? It's two words. Just provide the first word.

12 - Provide the surname of this individual. He was born in 1840 and is considered the founder of the Austrian School of Economics

13 - He was a visionary Environmentalist - ardently opposed to deforestation, consumerism, urban sprawl, tourism, species extinction - who became famous in Europe in the 1930's and 40's. Provide the first name of this person

14 - Thomas Paine: When we are planning for posterity, we ought to remember that virtue is not [what?].

Down

2 - John Locke: Government has no other end, but the preservation of [what?].

3 - Margaret Thatcher: "No one would remember the Good Samaritan if he'd only had good intentions; he had [what?] as well."

5 - Who said this: "...if I am sitting pretty and you've got a waitress who is making minimum wage plus tips, and I can afford it and she can't, what's the big deal for me to say, 'I'm gonna pay a little bit more'? That's neighborliness." (Just provide the middle name)

7 - (Two words) Ayn Rand's favorite writer.

11 - The juridical foundation of the State of Israel began with the [what?] Declaration?

12 - An economic theory or school of thought overthrown by Adam Smith and David Ricardo.

16 - (two words) Edmund Burke: All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to [what?]

Across

15 - When Ayn Rand left Russia for the USA, she first arrived in New York City (1926). Then spent six months with relatives in Chicago. She then headed for her destination to become a writer. Name her destination.

17 - Solon the [what?] of Athens

18 - Who said this: "How do you tell a Communist? Well, it's someone who reads Marx and Lenin. And how do you tell an anti-Communist? It's someone who understands Marx and Lenin." (Just provide the surname)

19 - In what country (as it's known today) was the founder of the Austrian School of Economics born?

20 - What quantity of money does the US Federal Reserve claim it is able and willing to print in order to rescue the economy?

21 - Margaret Thatcher said: "Europe was created by history. America was created by [what?]."

22 - Free marketers believe that minimum wage laws lead to [what?]

Down